THE GUJARAT GOVERNMENT told the Supreme Court on Thursday that the petitioners who have sought a probe into the alleged fake encounters in the state from 2002 to 2006 need to explain the reasons for their "selective public interest" in raising the issue.

A bench of Justice B R Gavai and Justice Sandeep Mehta was hearing two separate pleas filed in 2007 by senior journalist B G Verghese, and noted lyricist Javed Akhtar and Shabnam Hashmi, seeking a probe into the alleged fake encounters. Verghese died in 014. Solicitor General Tushar Mehta, appearing for the state, told the bench that encounters have taken place in other states also.

"They (petitioners) say we want investigation of a few encounters during a particular period in the state of Gujarat. Why this selective public interest? They have to answer that," he told the bench. "The petitioners will have to satisfy the court about their selective public interest," Mehta asserted.

The SC had earlier appointed a monitoring authority headed by former top court judge Justice HS Bedi, which had probed 17 alleged fake encounter cases in Suraj from 2002 to 2006. The committee, which had submitted its report in a sealed cover in 2019, recommended prosecution of police officers in three out of the 17 cases it probed. In its final report filed in the SC, the committee had said three persons were prima facie killed in fake encounters by the Gujarat Police.

During the hearing on Thursday, advocate Prashant Bhushan, appearing for one of the petitioners, said the committee report has already come before the court. "All that is needed to be done is to prosecute those persons who have been identified in the report," he said, adding the panel has come to a prima facie conclusion in three cases.

"The matter is required to be heard," the bench observed, and posted the pleas for hearing after two weeks.

The Gujarat government had earlier voiced reservations about the locus standi of the petitioners.

In its final report filed in the SC, the Justice Bedi committee had said three persons — Sameer Khan, Kasam Jafar and Haji Ismail — were prima facie killed in fake encounters by police. It had indicted nine police officers, including three inspector-rank officers. It, however, did not recommend prosecution of any IPS officer.

Suraj said on Thursday. He added that valuables worth over Rs 94 lakh were seized from the

that time trying to get the bail granted to one of the accused in his father's murder case can-

DDCET curriculum revised

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, JANUARY 18

THE GUJARAT Technological University (GTU) and Admission Committee for Professional Courses (ACPC) have revised the curriculum for the Diploma to Degree Common Entrance Test (DDCET).

Following representations from students, a meeting was organised at the varsity where a decision has been taken in the interest of the students, stated a government release issued on Thursday.

In the 100-mark syllabus published by the admission committee, 50 marks were kept for Chemistry. Considering students' representations, now Chemistry has 20 marks (Class 10 course). Along with this, Basic Engineering has 20 marks and Physics has 60 marks.
